

Schedule: Summer Institute 2008: Transportation in American History

Monday, June 23

8:00-10:00 AM: Registration Royer Hall; check into rooms for boarders
10:00 AM: Welcome and Announcements Royer North
10:30 to Noon Ted Dahlstrand: "Transportation as Revolution in American History"
Noon: Lunch: North Commons
1:00 PM: Primary source activity: Royer North
2:00- : small group work
For Boarders: Dinner Service is 4:30 to 8:00 PM at the North Commons

Tuesday, June 24

9:00 to Noon: Royer North
Andrew Cayton: "O Pioneers: Western Migration and the Settlement of a Continent"
9:00 to Noon: Royer Classroom
Ted Dahlstrand: "Counting the Cars on the New Jersey Turnpike: The Automobile and the Urbanization of the United States"
Noon: Lunch: North Commons
1:15-3:30: Field trip OHS: tour of collection facility and museum
3:30- : Small group work
For Boarders: Dinner Service is 4:30 to 8:00 PM at the North Commons

Wednesday, June 25

8:30 to 4:30: Field trip to Wright Brothers Aviation sites in Dayton & the Miami and Erie Canal, Piqua
Evening: Banquet Faculty Club
6 PM: Hors D'oeuvres
7 PM: Dinner Buffet

Thursday, June 26

9:00 to Noon: Royer North
Bill Childs: "Once I Built a Railroad and Made it Run: Trains, Transportation, and American Industrialization"
9:00 to Noon: Science & Engineering Library Room 390
Keith Wayne and Bethe MacLehose: "Teaching with Webzines, Podcasts, and other Technologies"
Noon: Lunch: North Commons
1 to 2:30: small group presentations
2:30: final evaluation activities
3:00: Finish